The departure of the fliers at 10:12 Eastern Standard time was reported to the navy by Admiral MacGruder, commanding the Cruiser Richmond.

Their objective is Pictou Harbor, Nova Scotia, which is 420 miles from Hawks Bay.

On Board U. S. Cruiser Milwaukee

Sept. 3 (By wireless to INS).—Lieut. Lowell Smith and Erik Nelson passed over the Milwaukee, 100 miles from Pictou Bay at 12:05 o'clock, eastern standard time. They had travelled 100 miles in one hour and 53 minutes.

Carpentier Leaves For Europe Sure That Sports Of U. S. Are Easy Marks

By SID MERCER
I. N. S. Special Correspondent

New York, Sept. 3 (INS).—Georges Carpentier is shaking the dust of America from his French heels—but not the American goldsmith from his pockets today as he sails for England on the Berengaria, accompanied by his manager, Francois Descamps and his trainer, Gus Wilson.

The departure of the orchid man creates hardly a ripple in the current of passing events. He landed in New York last May with a grandstand flourish but no pomp or ceremony attends his departure.

Georges is bidding America a long farewell this time. He may never return and in any event he will not come back as a fighter, for his box office value has sunk far below the price he puts on his services.

Carpentier came, saw, was conquered twice and is sailing back to that dear France with close to $100,000 to exchange into francs as a result of his defeat this summer by Tom Gibbons and Gene Tunney.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Philadelphia—The heat wave killed three persons in Greater Philadelphia yesterday and a fourth is expected to die. Only once before in September has the mercury reached a higher point than it did yesterday.

Harrisburg—While attempting to handle a bull on his farm near here, Jeremiah Yetter, 76, was attacked and gored by the animal. The bull tossed him several times before aid could reach him. His condition is serious.

Hummelstown—In the storm that broke the heat wave late yesterday, two automobiles were caught by the wind and overturned on the State Highway near here. Nobody was seriously hurt.

Teachers Vote 4 To 1 To Have Institute In Latter Part Of August

At the last session of the County Institute, Supt. Trostle asked for an expression from the teachers as to their preference regarding the time of holding the county institute. The vote was four to one in favor of the early institute.

The committee on resolutions presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, We, the Public School Teachers of Clearfield County assembled in our sixty-first annual institute, still have an abiding faith in the public school system of our great commonwealth and in its ability to produce a "better breed of people" and feeling that we have received from our instructors and superintendents abundant inspiration and help for our great work, hereby resolve:

1. That we return to our respective schools taking with us the new ideas and the inspiration and help we have received and labor earnestly to prepare our boys and girls for service to themselves, their homes, their communities, their country, and their God.

2. That we again endorse the health program and course of health studies outlined by the State Department and that we make daily use of them in our school work.

3. That we make a conscientious effort to hasten the time when the pupil will find himself vocationally by supplying material and suggestions that will encourage him to investigate for himself and help him to judge wisely.

4. That we recommend some other evening than Monday evening be set for the various class and organization gatherings so that ample time will be allowed to arrange for them.

5. That we extend to the people of Clearfield our appreciation for their hospitality, to the Clearfield Board of Education for the use of their splendid auditorium, to Supt. Zerfoss and Principal Morrison for the courtesies extended to us.

6. That we tender our heartfelt thanks to Miss Bragg, Dr. Puffer, and Dr. Bryan for their most inspiring and helpful instruction, to Prof. Taylor and Mrs. Bay for the helpful musical instruction, and to Prof. Shaw of the Department, for his inspiring talk.

7. That we extend to Superintendent Trostle and his Assistants our sincere thanks for bringing to us in our institute such splendid instructors and for their untiring efforts to raise the standards of the schools of our County.

EAST END BABY CLINIC THURSDAY

One thing after another has transpired this summer to prevent the carrying out of plans made last spring, by which the D. A. R. would cooperate with the Red Cross in holding a Baby Clinic twice a month in the East End House.

But again everything seems favorable and Thursday at 2:30 a committee of women from the D. A. R. will assist the Red Cross nurse and a physician will be in attendance for consultation.

Mothers are urged to bring their children of pre-school age and take advantage of this help in the rearing of children. The Shick Test will also be given on Thursday to children who were inoculated last winter with toxin-anti-toxin. This is necessary if you would be sure that your child is immune from diphtheria. Eighty-three were given the test at Red Cross headquarters last Thursday. As over three hundred were inoculated, many more should be brought in for the test.

Children will be weighed and measured as usual at Red Cross Headquarters, under the supervision of Miss Ross on Thursday, from two to five o'clock.

Miss Kathryn Reid and Earl D. Malhorn motored up from York, Pa., and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Russell the past week.

Miss Janet Gray returned to her home in York after sending eight weeks with her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Russell.

Mrs. Richard Gilbert and Rev. and Mrs. Hatch and Miss Kratzer entertained the Sunday School class of Wm. Brown at Irvin's Park last Saturday.

School Pupils Gaily Romp Back To Books Two Thousand Strong

The Clearfield public schools, with the exception of Junior High, which will not be ready for two weeks yet, opened Tuesday morning. A survey of the enrollment in the different schools made by City Supt. Zerfoss last evening showed that 97 per cent of the expected enrollment was present at the opening.

There are 65 teachers engaged in the different schools and the total enrollment, when Junior High opens, will run well over the two thousand mark. Last year's total was 2,095.

The St. Francis parochial schools also opened on Tuesday morning with an enrollment of approximately 300 under the direction of seven teachers.

ONE KILLED, 7 BADLY HURT AT SYKESVILLE RAILWAY CROSSING

Punxsutawney, Pa., Sept. 3 (INS).—Twila Sprague, 7-year-old daughter of Norman Sprague, was killed and five other occupants of the automobile in which she was riding were seriously injured today when Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh train No. 118 struck the car on a crossing at Sykesville, near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprague, grandparents of the little girl, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sprague, and Arthur Johnston, were the other victims, with the grandparents expected to die.

All of the victims lived at Paradise, Pa., near Reynoldsville.

Norman Sprague was believed to have been driving the automobile at the time of the accident. He was waiting on one side of the crossing for a southbound freight train to pass, and started across the track immediately after it had cleared the crossing when the passenger train ploughed through the automobile. The freight train had obscured any view of the crushing passenger train.

ATTEMPT MADE TO HOLD UP "GOLDEN STATE LIMITED"

Meade, Kansas, Sept. 3 (INS).—More than a hundred armed men are scouring Meade county today in search of two holdup men who failed in an attempt to rob the Golden State Limited, crack passenger train of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. Authorities believe however, that the bandits escaped across the Oklahoma State line.

The two deputy sheriffs who were shot during the gun-battle which ensued when the holdup men were surprised shortly after the train had stopped here, are not in a serious condition.

Officials of the railroad and county officers of Meade had been "tipped" off that a holdup would be attempted. The train was carrying nearly a quarter of a million dollars. When the train stopped three men jumped to the ground from between the two front baggage cars and commanded the engine crew to "stick 'em up."

Officers who were in waiting appeared and the gun battle followed.

IRVONA COUPLE MARRY

At the office of John H. Phillips, J. P., in Irvona, Pa., on Saturday evening, August 30th, 1924, Isaac Sheldon Brink and Rose Gertrude Hockenberry, both of Irvona, were united in marriage by the Justice, in the presence of the mother of the groom and a few invited guests. Mr. Brink is the son of Milton Brink, one of the Roosevelt kind, with sixteen Brinks to his credit, while Miss Hockenberry is a grand daughter of ex-Judge John Hockenberry of Chest township, long gone to his reward. After they return from their honeymoon they will take up their residence in Irvona.

Mrs. Richard Gilbert and Rev. and Mrs. Hatch and Miss Kratzer entertained the Sunday School class of Wm. Brown at Irvin's Park last Saturday.

INQUEST AT HERRIN MAY BE SIGNAL FOR ANOTHER OUTBREAK

Both Factions Appear at City Hall Today for Inquest; Hard Feeling
Shows On the Surface.

SHERIFF SPEAKS

By BENSON PRATT
(I. N. S. Special Correspondent.)
Herrin, Ill., Sept. 3.—With only a corporal's guard the from state militia present to keep order, Williamson county "bloody Williamson" trooped into Herrin today to attend the inquests into the deaths of six men, slain Saturday in the latest flareup of the bitter feud, which has made this county a place of terror.

Both factions came in armed, and while awaiting the opening of the inquest, they gathered about the streets in groups, watching, waiting, fearing.

It was the first time since Saturday's killings that the leaders of the opposing factions—Sheriff Galligan and his deputies on the one side and alleged leaders of the Ku Klux Klan on the other—had met. And all Herrin and Williamson county was asking as the time for the inquest neared, "What will happen?"

The air is shrouded in a crimson haze of possible bloodshed.

"If the day passes quietly, then it is more or less certain that many peaceful days will follow. It will mean that the problems of Williamson county are solved, but rather that the contending factions have temporarily put their weapons in the holster of an armed truce."

This is the way Sheriff Galligan sums up the situation, and it is the generally prevailing belief that what transpires in the Herrin city hall today will determine what the next chapters of Williamson county contain.

And to add to the tenseness of the situation are the plans of the Ku Klux Klan to mass in the robes of their order to pay their respects to members of the Klan who fell Saturday by a monster demonstration at the funeral today of Charles Willard, one of the victims.

At either the inquest or the funeral, those wise in the ways of Herrin say, some little thing may happen—and if it does—

PROMINENT EDUCATOR ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Philadelphia, Sept. 3 (INS).—Prof. A. G. Lorenzo, of St. Joseph's College here is in a critical condition at the University hospital from two bullet wounds in his head inflicted by himself in an attempt at suicide. The Professor shot himself outside Memorial Hall, in Fairmount Park while two guards looked on.

Police found a farewell note in his pocket addressed to his wife in which he said "everyone is bothering me and people are throwing stones at me."

It is thought he suffered a mental collapse.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Porter and daughter Meriam, spent Labor Day at "The Evergreen," a Masonic camp near Bellefonte. The party was composed entirely of thirty-third degree Masons.

DARIO RESTA, NOTED AUTO RACER, KILLS HIMSELF IN LONDON

London, Sept. 3 (INS).—Dario Resta, one of the most famous automobile racing drivers in the world was killed in a smash up on the Brooklands track today.

Dario Resta appeared in many of the biggest automobile races in the United States and was recognized as one of the world's greatest drivers because of victories at the Indianapolis speedway, Sheepshead Bay speedway and on other tracks. The war interrupted his visits to this country and he had not been seen here for several years.

Lt. Pearson, Speed King Of The Air, Dashes To Death On Dayton Field

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 3 (INS).—Military and commercial air circles today were speculating on what effect the tragic death of Lieut. Alex Pearson may have upon the international air races the first week in October.

Lieut. Pearson was instantly killed in a crash at Wilbur Wright Field last night during a practice spin in the navy Curtis racer in which he was to go against time in the greatest classic in the history of aviation.

He was picked as the general favorite to win the Pulitzer trophy.

He had been in the air but a quarter of an hour when the right wing of the plane crumpled at less than 300 feet above ground.

Every bone in the pilot's body was broken by the impact of the wreck and the plane was demolished.

Pearson had been at high altitude and zoomed downward, the plane making 265 miles an hour, according to the best estimates obtainable from flying officers who witnessed the tragedy.

At less than 300 feet, Pearson chose to ascend again and pulled over his controls. The little plane responded and as it described the half of the arc in making the swing upward, the wing terrific strain occasioned by the air pressure, according to other pilots.

Mrs. Pearson is in a critical condition due to the shock of her husband's death.

Definite arrangements have not been made but Lieut. Pearson will be accorded a full military funeral. Mrs. Pearson is to have the final say regarding the plans but she was in no condition to reach any decision early today.

FAMILY REUNION AT HOME OF J. I. SPENCER, NEAR GRAMPIAN

A family reunion was held at the home of J. I. Spencer, in Penn township, on Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday the family took baskets and drove to Mineral Springs for lunch and back to Camp Tilly for bathing.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McGhee, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Gilmore, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spencer and family, of Grampian; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spencer and family, of Grampian; Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Farwell and daughter, of Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. John Cleaver, of Grampian.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Spencer left for a visit in Pittsburgh and Cleveland after the reunion.

FOOTBALL MAKES ITS BOW

A genuine football atmosphere has enveloped Clearfield. It coincided with the opening of school and the announcement of the first practice session.

Prospects for the season are good, as 11 seasoned veterans are under the wing of Capt. Bob Wilson. Aside from the dozen letter men the entire junior varsity is available and some very good material developed in that squad last season.

Uniforms were issued Monday to all letter men, while those without the mole skins receive theirs today and will report for the first practice session this afternoon. Although this is the first practice called for, many men have been in constant training and this "rain" to go" propensity has been the cause of daily ball handling practice. Most of the letter men have been working this summer and all are very near their fighting weight and are eager to be physically fit when they see "the whites of the enemy's eyes."

Sousa's Great Band To Play Concert Here Friday, October 3rd

Manager Hartman, of the Driggs Theatre makes an announcement tonight that will interest every lover of good music in this vicinity.

Sousa and his Band will appear at the Driggs theatre for a matinee on Friday, October 3rd, playing here in the afternoon and Punxsutawney in the evening.

It is very seldom that Sousa plays in cities as small as Clearfield and it goes without saying that Sousa will get a fine reception upon his appearance here.

PLAYGROUNDS HOLD MANY ENJOYABLE COMMUNITY EVENTS

Among the many events held during the closing week of the Playground season, were three community parties in which hundreds of folks enjoyed evenings of recreation and social times, in fact a number were seen to attend all three of the parties.

At West Side Park, Miss Dorothy Tobb conducted a "Doggie Roast" which was the delight of a happy crowd from "tots" to young people and parents.

The children of Reedsville Playground spent an entire week getting ready for their big event, and community festival, and personal invitations were extended to the homes of the community by the young people going from door to door.

The night was an ideal one and attracted over 500 people. The pavilion was tastefully decorated with bunting and colored lights with streamers; the bonfire was in constant use to roast the "frankfurters" and everyone was intent on enjoying the evening. Messrs. John E. Herdman and S. Boyd Smith entertained with a number of musical selections, during which the young folks romped around in the fashion of the square dances. The committee in charge of Playground Director Kathryn Thorn, had a large supply of refreshments on hand. Many donations of home-made cake, candy and money were gratefully received from residents of the community which helped to make the party a success. A large bag of toasted "goulers" donated by Thorn Bros. were especially enjoyed by the boys and girls in a grand peanut scramble, one lively collecting 172 peanuts in his cap.

Triennial Assessment To Begin On Sept. 8th In Clearfield County

The Assessors will start on September 8th to make the triennial assessment for Clearfield county. The valuations fixed for tax purposes at this time will stand for the coming three years and the local Assessors should go over our town and do their work carefully.

The law provides that before making their assessment the Assessors of the different Wards should meet in conference and then go over the town in a body, view the different properties and make a uniform assessment. That is "properties equal in value should be uniformly assessed and if the Assessors decide to assess a $5,000 property at $1500 or $2,000, in one Ward, the similarly valued properties in every other Ward should have the same rating for tax purposes.

This should be done, the law contemplates that it be done and it is up to the Assessors.

Clearfield borough pays much more county tax in proportion to her borough and school tax, than any other district in the county and this should be corrected at this time and the Assessors are the officials who have the power to and whose duty it is to make this needed correction.

WORK PROGRESSES

For the past four or five years, as since the present bunch of Clearfield business men took over the Clearfield Park and joined with the Clearfield County Agricultural Society in having Clearfield county a real agricultural fair, the annual exhibition has been growing by leaps and bounds, each year's effort far out-reaching that of the previous year, until in this short space of years the Clearfield County Fair has grown in size, importance and wealth of exhibits and entertainment until this fair is now second to none in the central and western part of Pennsylvania, attracting greater crowds of pleased patrons each year.

The Clearfield County Fair is a town and a county institution, whose main object is to place Clearfield and Clearfield county products on exhibition under most favorable conditions and thus show to an admiring people what an empire in itself old Clearfield county is. The unselfish efforts of the fair management have already resulted in converting our big park into one of the largest, handsomest and most finely appointed fair grounds to be found anywhere out of doors, its equipment and accommodations being added to annually by the putting back into improvements of every dollar of profit received from each annual exhibition, together with as much more annually as good business methods will allow.

Every year something new both in the matter of accommodations and entertainment is supplied and this year will eclipse all previous efforts as a $75,000 grandstand, the finest of its kind in the land and a real credit to Clearfield county, is about completed and will be ready for the accommodation of fair patrons when this year's big fair opens on Tuesday, September 23d.

The big new stand is the very last word in grandstand construction. Built of steel and reinforced concrete, it not only is as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar itself, but practically indestructible. Equipped with comfortable chairs to seat 3100 people, and all modern conveniences, the big structure is a thing of beauty and an everlasting monument to two men whose broad-gauge vision made it possible at this time.

Another new and decidedly novel feature about this year's fair will be the introduction for the first time in the history of Pennsylvania county fairs of a complete night program consisting of light harness racing, hipodrome and other track attractions, in fact a complete fair program. This will be made possible by the installation of several huge batteries of flood lights, each light having 8,000 candle power capacity, the whole designed to flood the big park with light and make every inch of the 35 acres included in the grounds as light as day. That this can and will be done was shown by experiments carried on with the installation of the first flood light unit, when, with but two of the big 8,000 candle power lights turned on, it was (Continued On Page Two)

Klan Will Not Parade At Pittsburgh If Not Permitted To Mask

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 3 (INS).—After months of legal battling, Sam D. Rich, King Klesigle and Imperial representative of the Ku Klux Klan in Pennsylvania has announced members will not parade in Pittsburgh unless allowed to wear masks.

The announcement was made following the acceptance of the parade permit by a Klan official. When the request was first made for the parade city officials denied it, but after Klan leaders had threatened to carry the case through state courts, the permit was granted with the proviso that no masks could be worn.

WHY IT WILL PAY YOU TO TRADE IN CLEARFIELD

The prosperity, individually and collectively, of every community is expressed in the cold calculation of dollars and cents that register in the local banking houses.

And so Clearfield Banks are a correct barometer of the financial condition and the prosperity of Clearfield. Dollars drawn from the vaults of our banking institutions, if spent in Clearfield, will find their way right back to where they come from. You've all heard the story of how one lone ten dollar bill put into circulation cancelled several debts and returned to the pocket of the original spender—a man owed his neighbor ten dollars. He paid him. The neighbor owed the Grocer $10 so he took the same money that had been paid him and paid the Grocer. The Grocer likewise cancelled his obligation with the hardware man for ten dollars and the hardware man immediately paid his garage bill of ten dollars and the garage man, who had the first man working for him, paid his salary with the same ten plus other tens, so five accounts had been cancelled totaling $50, and all with one little ten spot. And so it goes with every other dollar that is spent in Clearfield.

Playgrounds Hold Many Enjoyable Events

Festival was Miss Leonore Heller of Jersey City, N. J. Miss Heller has been visiting Miss Kathryn Thorn after a most successful season in charge of one of the eighteen playgrounds of Jersey City, one of her charges having won first prize in the city contest on spelling. The boys basketball team will have their photo taken Saturday afternoon.

A third and closing, successful community party was held at the East End Playground on Friday evening, another delightful affair. The Italian band again rendered a program of selections that were enjoyed by a large crowd of folks from every section of Clearfield. The affair was under the direction of the Ladies' Committee assisted by Playground Leader, Miss Margaret Jane Overly and a number of busy young people who kept the visitors supplied with a variety of refreshments. A tug-of-war between the single and married men was a feature of the evening, and the youngsters enjoyed the playground equipment and sack races. The lighting system helped greatly in making the grounds attractive.

Although the four community playgrounds are officially closed it has been decided to leave the swings, seesaws, etc., on the grounds for several weeks longer while the warm weather continues and some of the children have not started their school term. Boys and girls wishing to use playground balls, etc., can secure them from the Y. M. C. A. office to use at their playground.

The community tennis courts will be "marked off" and the net in place for the next two months, and the public are urged to make continuous use of them; players are expected to furnish their own racquets and tennis balls. Volley ball for men and the Horse shoe leagues will continue during September.

YOUNG SON OF MR. AND MRS. A. B. CURTIS DIES

Following an illness covering a period of three weeks—despite all that medical skill, careful nursing and kindly ministrations could do to stay the ravages of disease—Charles Chamberlain Curtis, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Curtis, of Philipsburg, passed away from complications at the family home at 10:30 o'clock on Monday night, September 1, 1924. He took ill at the Rotary picnic at Lakeside Park, and his condition at once assumed a critical aspect. Deceased was born in Philipsburg on November 21st, 1913, making his age 10 years, 9 months and 11 days. He was an exceptionally interesting and lovable lad, and a favorite among his playmates. He was one of a large class of boys and girls taken no membership in the Trinity Methodist church on Sunday, May 4th, 1924. It was always his pride to be at his place at the earliest possible moment in the Sabbath school, and esteemed it a delight to accompany his parents to the preaching services. Had he lived he would have entered the sixth grade with the opening of the present term of school. There is deep and wide spread sorrow throughout the community over the death of this precious boy, loved so much and the more by those who knew him best. Besides his grief-stricken parents, he is survived by three brothers, Othello, Owen and Melvin. The funeral in charge of Rev. Dr. R. S. Oyler, will take place from the family home on Thursday afternoon at 2:30, with interment in the Philipsburg cemetery.

CHURCH EVENTS

Trinity School was a very interesting session, with many strangers and visitors in attendance. This came to 378 with offering of $23.67. Ord Norris and Mrs. William Gilliland were appointed delegates to the Sunday School convention in which the pastor desired Trinity to be represented by 100 per cent of enrollment of teachers. Next Sunday is the Missionary program and offering, with the first Fall Rally.

In the morning the services were enjoyable. All the music by a large chorus was finely rendered. The exposition of John 3:2 and Cor. 2:2 presented "The Preaching for These Times." Conditions of living, industry and home are changing thoroughly. Seeking of pleasure, resort to luxury in an excessive degree, which spells a waste, must be countered by a Christian passion for service. And the test of life must be loyalty to Christ. The challenge to men for survival by faith that carries the entire man into a complete commitment, must be stressed. We need to be saved as much by His life as by Christ's grace.

In the evening the last union service was held, in which the Rev. Messrs. R. A. Hatch, W. L. Cruthers, E. C. Reeve, and E. Roy Hauser, who was in charge, each participated. By lot it fell to the pastor of Trinity Church to preach the sermon, which was an exposition of Romans 10:10—"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." The male chorus sang two selections, and by the choir two special selections were given; also, a dismissal-recessional.

This week's events, Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock, the semicentennial convention of the County Sunday School association will open its two-day session. Wednesday, 8:40 p. m. official board.

ARREST GYPSY BAND

Three members of a Gypsy band that has been infesting this neck of the woods all summer were arrested out near Wallacetown last night by a posse composed of Sheriff Lowell, Deputy Sheriff Hummelbaugh, Constables Reilly and Carlson. FIREMEN 'HOUSE' NEW TRUCK

Chester Hill House Company on Saturday night housed a brand new auto combination chemical and hose truck. One year ago interested and progressive citizens determined to organize a local fire company, and look after the fire-risk in their rapidly growing town. Harry Hughes, a large property holder, was an active leader in the proposition. The truck was bought and delivered. Last week and the Fire Company, put on a bazaar which attracted large crowds for three nights, culminating in the housing ceremony, Saturday night, when Jno. M. Bain, of Clearfield, delivered the address using as his theme the thought of "Service" and especially volunteer service such as rendered by Volunteer Firemen. The Morrisdale band rendered a program of delightful concert music and the ceremonies were followed by an old fashioned square dance.

Fire Chief Frank Kephart and his assistant chief, James Hawkin, of the Philipsburg Department had charge of the affair and were present with the Fire Laddies of their city in uniform and with their equipment to welcome their new neighbor into the ranks.

CAUGHT CORN STEALER

Steward Bowman, at the County Home, caught an East End man and his son coming out of one of the corn fields on the Home farm Monday and an examination of the boy disclosed that he had no less than fifteen ears of under ripe corn hid away in his blouse. The corn was confiscated and the man was made to pay $1.00 for the damage done, as a warning to others that trespassing and stealing at the County Home farm must stop.

Spring Suspension That Cuts Out Side-Sway

The Brougham

Combine the Chrysler Six new spring suspension with the special flexibly high speed balloon tires, standard on all models, and you have an unequalled degree of comfort in riding. Other features that help set the Chrysler Six apart are the utter lack of a vibration period at any speed, the ability of the motor, although only 3-inch bore by 4 1/4-inch stroke to deliver 68 horsepower, a speed capacity better than 70 miles an hour, gasoline economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon and an alertness that enables you to shoot from 5 miles an hour to 50 in less than 19 seconds.

The Touring, $1395 The Phaeton, $1495
The Roadster, 1625 The Sedan, 1725
The Brougham, 1895 The Imperial, 1995
All prices f. o. b. Detroit, tax extra.

Results never before known, which you can count on the Chrysler Six delivering, bear upon every phase of performance. None of these surprising accomplishments is more remarkable, or more acceptable, than the elimination of side-sway.

This is due to the adoption of an entirely new practice in spring suspension. In the Chrysler Six the rear springs are mounted at right angles to the axle, close to and parallel to the rear wheels—instead of at an angle to conform to the taper of the frame.

As soon as you can, take a ride in the Chrysler Six. Try it out on a turn and note how securely it takes it, without the slightest suggestion of disagreeable or alarming side-sway. And while you are in the car, try it out also on a cobbled street or rutted road. You'll find you can ride in comfort at 60 miles an hour.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan.

LIGHTER BREAKFASTS

The good old institution of ham and eggs for breakfast is disappearing, says a Chicago hotel steward. Likewise the allied bacon and eggs and sausages and stacks of buckwheat cakes.

"Fruits and cereals are rapidly becoming the main dishes of the business man's breakfast," he says.

A heavy breakfast is still the rule on the farm and in the woods, with much justification. It takes considerable fuel to keep a hard-working outdoor man going through a long morning. But even there common sense is coming into play, and meals, in size and quality, are being adjusted more scientifically to the needs of the human engine.

As for the business or professional man and woman, it is simply a case of making less work for the stomach in order to let the brain do more work. This applies to lunch as well as breakfast.

SHORTER BALLOTS

"There is no reason in the world," remarks a prominent newspaper, "for electing a coroner or a county surveyor or a state treasurer or secretary of state. The people seldom know the candidates and are not in position to choose between them. Men of better ability could generally be had if these officers were appointed."

This is true of many other offices, too—state, county and municipal. It is desirable to get as many names as possible off the regular election ballots, in order to give the voter a chance to concentrate more intelligently on those that are left. It is especially desirable to lessen the number of names on primary ballots, under the system of nomination now prevalent almost everywhere, because they confuse the voter and make wise choice difficult.

Multiplying opportunities to run for office is evidence of democratic freedom, but there is danger of too much democracy along this line. The short ballot generally results in more intelligent voting, more interest in elections and better government. It lets the citizens vote only for a few important officers, who appoint the rest. Thus authority is concentrated and responsibility is fixed.

This is the way of good private business, and it is being recognized more clearly, year by year, as good likewise for public business.

MAN AGAINST HORSE

Another indignity was heaped upon the horse the other day. And it happened in London, where that noble beast is still highly honored. A man beat a horse in a six-day race. Each of the contestants trotted for 10 hours a day. On the last day the horse was taken out, exhausted, before the time was up, while the man was still jogging along steadily. The crowning humiliation was that the man was nearly 60 years old.

This is by no means the first instance of the kind. It has been proved many a time that although the horse has the advantage for short distances, a good human runner can beat him in a long race. Either the man's build enables him to function more efficiently, when allowed to set his own pace, or else his intelligence and will give him an advantage over brutes even in physical contest.

Both are put to shame, however, by the tireless gas engine, which can cover far more ground in one day than man and horse did in a week, and keep on doing it day after day. Which means that mechanically, man and all the other animals are far from perfect. They lack locomotive efficiency because they can only progress by a series of awkward up and down movements, instead of the smooth turning of wheels and shafts.

Birds and fishes are better suited to easy locomotion, and man wisely imitates both in the airplane.

Curwensville's Own Column

The game of base ball at the Park on Labor Day between Glen Richey and Grampian was a contest worth watching. It was hard to determine until the game was almost finished which side was going to be the winner. At the close however Glen Richey proved to be the victors, winning out in an error of the first baseman on the Grampian side, he letting a ball pass through which brought in the winning tallies. The score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Richeys.

IT'S A FULL MEAL

That's a remark one lady used when she had been asked to come here for lunch the other day. "Why I'd call that a full meal for anyone and yet you call it a lunch," she said and she meant it, too.

We hear this remark frequently after folks have come here to lunch the first time.

SPORTS

By I. N. S. News Service

Brooklyn pulled two games out of the fire in Philadelphia and advanced to within two games of the Giants and within one of the Pirates. Who were idle. The Dodgers came from behind to win the first game in the tenth, 12 to 9, after Dazzy Vance had been shelled from the firing line, and won the second 4 to 3, in five innings.

The Giants lost to the Braves, 7 to 3, but kept in the lead by a snake's eyelash by copping the nightcap, 10 to 2.

The Red Sox dusted the cowboys off their bats and swamped the Yanks 14 to 6, but the Champs stayed within a game and a half of the idle Senators by winning the second 5 to 2.

The White Sox got one leg out of the cellar by taming the Tigers twice, 6 to 2 and 8 to 5.

The Browns collapsed against Cleveland, the Indians winning 12 to 4.

The Snyder Reunion was held last Saturday, Aug. 30, on the well known Paul Mays farm, near Olanta, Pa.

The day was a great success and shall never be forgotten by the friends and relatives who came from far and near to spend the day together at that beautiful spot in the woods.

The morning was taken up mostly in talking to those whom they had not seen for a year, and many who had not met for years talked together of old memories of the past. Next came dinner, and the tables were laid with everything one could wish for and everyone had all they could eat.

The program for the afternoon was handled very nicely by Mr. Col Snyder, president of the association. The program consisted of some fine music by an orchestra, recitations by the old and young, an address by Rev. Parker Large, and an address by the president of the association. The program ended by singing "America," and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Every one enjoyed the day and went to their several homes carrying a smile with them.

Jack's Prayer.
Little Jack had been so naughty that mother had to give him a spanking, and all that afternoon a desire for revenge rankled in his breast. At length bedtime came and kneeling down he said his evening prayer, asking a blessing upon all the members of the family individually—except one.

Then, rising, he turned to his mother, with a triumphant look, saying as he climbed into bed, "I s'pose you noticed you wasn't in it."

Several Reasons Why BUTTERNUT BREAD Literally Melts In Your Mouth

Years ago, a baker came to Clearfield with the idea of giving Clearfield housewives the best loaf of bread possible. And today, after many years, this bakery is giving the Clearfield housewives a loaf of bread that rivals the "kind Mother used to make."

Close application to formulas tried and true, a uniformity that rivals the rising sun makes the BUTTERNUT BREAD that you get from this bakery just the same yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Why It Will Pay You To Trade In Clearfield

Clearfield is Your city. And you can take away from its success, thereby reducing your own prosperity, or you can aid materially your city and yourself if you will always spend your dollars in Clearfield. Every dollar you spend either helps to make or mar the business success of Clearfield. It either adds or subtracts from the financial strength of our banks as well as of our business firms. And when you take away from the prosperity of a community you take away from your own prosperity or chance of more prosperity at the same time. So you see this matter of buying in Clearfield all revolves right back to self interest.

Next week we are going to tell you something about your neighbors—it's not scandal—neither is it gossip, but after you read it we want you to gossip to your neighbor about it. The title of this next article is "They". Watch for it on this page of next week's Progress.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

A memorial to John Brown, the famed abolitionist, of pre-Civil War days, whose body is buried at North Elm, N. Y., will be erected in Crawford county at the place of the Pomona race and other interested persons. Brown once conducted a meeting there and a meeting is to be held for the purpose of forming an association with the view to reclaiming the old foundation of the tannery and constructing thereon a reproduction of the building, the structure to be used as a museum. Seven hundred dollars have already been contributed toward the project and the site of the tannery, which once was a station on the famous underground railway of the day, has been offered free. Ten thousand dollars will be the goal sought by the memorial association.

More than one billion tons of soft coal, of which approximately 62,000,000 tons were unavoidably lost, have been lost in mining in Pennsylvania in the last twenty years. Amos D. Lister, assistant state geologist, declared in a bulletin entitled "Bituminous Coal Losses and Mining Methods in Pennsylvania," issued for distribution by the Geological Survey. It was pointed out that Pennsylvania has the second highest coal recovery in the United States with West Virginia.

The bulletin traces the history of mining developments in Pennsylvania from the Civil War time and is the only one of its kind made of the State's coal fields. It describes in detail the mining methods employed in each of the fields and is a co-operative work between the Pennsylvania Survey and the United States Coal Commission.

Pennsylvanians have been loyal to their native sons in the matter of losing governors as only three in a last 124 years were born outside the State. Of these Gov. Pinchot is one, Simsbury, Conn., being the place of his birth. The others were John K. Tener, born in County Tyrone, Ireland and Robert E. Patton, who was born in Quantico, Maryland.

We men are more or less disposed to cackle or swear at the female of the species for getting her hair bobbed because it is fashionable just now, and so like a woman. On Monday when the Prince of Wales sauntered into Belmont Park where the international horse was being held, Halbert Hagedorn was wearing a Panama hat with its brim turned down all the way round. With ten minutes of the arrival of the Prince every Panama hat and soft hat in the crowd had its brim turned down all the way round. Thus did American royalty ape the British Knight. The women have nothing on us men, by heck!

An artificial kidney, invented by Dr. John J. Abel of Hopkins Medical school in Baltimore, will soon be tried out experimentally in Berlin. Its purpose is to relieve the kidneys during dangerous moments, such as when poisons like mercury compounds are in the blood. The imitation kidney, made of glass, is tapped into veins and arteries to filter the blood.

Seems a wild suggestion now, but will scientists finally perfect artificial hearts, stomachs and the like? The body, after all, is just a delicate machine. If man can put a new engine in a fitter, why not in a person?

That distance lends enchantment to the view" has long been advanced as a wise crack by wise crakers. It rings true even now in the firm belief of a local young lady. Some few months ago this young lady got into correspondence with a gentleman named Benjamin Trude, who lived out in Oklahoma. As the correspondence persisted both sides alleged to feel the spark of love begin to kindle in their hearts. It must have been indigestion however, because when the Oklahoma man arrived in Clearfield last week and sought out the object of his long-distance courtship, one look at him cured the young lady, and she politely but firmly told the western stranger there was nothing doing in the marriage line. Trude remained several days and attempted to press his suit in person, but the fickle fair one said "nothing doing." I can pick up a whole lot of better looking fellows than you right here in Clearfield. Giving up the fruitless quest at the end of a week Trude started Saturday last on the long trip back to Oklahoma single-handed and alone.

possible for a man at the extreme edge of the Park to read the typewritten address on an envelope at 9:30 p. m.

These lights will be so placed that the track will be made light as day and night patrons of the fair will thus be privileged to enjoy the same measure of entertainment as is furnished during the daylight hours.

This is a decided innovation at county fairs and should prove both desirable and highly attractive.

The exhibits of farm products, live stock, fancy poultry, etc., will be away ahead of last year, Manager Callahan's bookings already show.

Another feature out of the ordinary at this fair will be the wild animal exhibit under the direction of the State Game Commission. This exhibit will be in charge of Chief Trapper C. E. Logue, who, with his assistants, will give daily lessons or instructions in trapping for furs.

The program for the fair, which includes a racing program which provides $4,000 in purses, with 75 horses entered.

Free attractions: King Bros. presenting Kentucky thoroughbred racing hippodrome, with the following acts—Roman standing race, half-mile dash; racing ostriches, half-mile dash;

racine elk, half-mile dash; flat race, half-mile dash; high jumping horses; menage horses; riding ostriches; cowboy monkey drill; relay race, mile and a half; Roman chariot races, half-mile dash. The above acts will be staged both day and night with 16 good fast horses and 12 riders.

Midway amusements: Merry-go-round, ferris wheel, airplane swings, merry mix up, caterpillar, minstrel show, athletic show, Indian show, circus side show, water show, one ring circus and platform show.

Have You a Bad Back?

Then the Advice of This Clearfield Resident Will Interest You.

Does your back ache night and day? Hinder work; destroy your rest? Are you tortured with stabbing pains? When you stoop, lift or bend? Then likely your kidneys are weak. More troubles may soon appear. Headaches, dizziness, nervousness; Or uric acid and its ills. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic.

Use Doan's Pills. Read this Clearfield testimony: Geo. J. Kragle, painter, 306 E. Locust St., says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and backache gave me little rest. The most troublesome times were when I stood in one position too long or if I stooped. The sharp kink took me in the small of my back and it was hard to straighten. Sometimes, a lame, sore back bothered me mornings. My kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills from Aughenbaugh's Drug Store drove away the backache and regulated my kidneys."

ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL CROMAR FLOORED HOME

A newly constructed home on W. 10th St. on Avenue, Philadelphia. Cromar floors throughout. Builder and owner, Henry E. Betts.

CROMAR Flooring and good furniture harmonize—they are both finished at the factory

Nothing more strongly emphasizes good taste than the harmony of floors with furniture and furnishings. The beauty of one enhances that of the other.

That is one of the charms of CROMAR Oak Flooring. Its beauty is not in itself alone, marked as that is. It has the quality of brightening up the whole house, as no other single improvement can.

With attractiveness, CROMAR brings many conveniences. It can be laid a room a day—and used that day—because all filling and varnishing is completed at the factory. It is thoroughly seasoned and sealed on all sides against moisture to prevent warping. It costs no more—usually less—than you pay for oak floors bought and laid the usual way.

There are lumber dealers in your town who sell CROMAR. Any good carpenter can lay it. Write for booklets, sample and names of dealers.

Carpentier Leaves For Europe Sure That Sports Of U. S. Are Easy Marks

By SID MERCER
I. N. S. Special Correspondent

New York, Sept. 3 (INS).—George Carpentier is shaking the dust of America from his French heels—but not the American gold dust from his pockets today as he sails for England on the Berengaria, accompanied by his manager, Francois Descamps and his trainer, Gus Wilson.

The departure of the orchid man creates hardly a ripple in the current of passing events. He landed in New York last May with a grandstand flourish but no pomp or ceremony attends his departure.

Georges is bidding America a long farewell this time. He may never return and in any event he will not come back as a fighter, for his box office value has sunk far below the price he puts on his services.

Carpentier came, saw, was conquered twice and is sailing back to that dear France with close to $100,000 to exchange into francs as a result of his defeat this summer by Tom Gibbons and Gene Tunney.

Teachers Vote 4 To 1 To Have Institute In Latter Part Of August

At the last session of the County Institute, Supt. Trostle asked for an expression from the teachers as to their preference regarding the time of holding the county institute. The vote was four to one in favor of the early institute.

The committee on resolutions presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, We, the Public School Teachers of Clearfield County assembled in our sixty-first annual institute, still have an abiding faith in the public school system of our great commonwealth and in its ability to produce a "better breed of people" and feeling that we have received from our instructors and superintendents abundant inspiration and help for our great work, hereby resolve:

1. That we return to our respective schools taking with us the new ideas and the inspiration and help we have received and labor earnestly to prepare our boys and girls for service to themselves, their homes, their communities, their country, and their God.

2. That we again endorse the health program and course of health studies outlined by the State Department and that we make daily use of them in our school work.

3. That we make a conscientious effort to hasten the time when the pupil will find himself vocationally by supplying material and suggestions that will encourage him to investigate for himself and help him to judge wisely.

4. That we recommend some other evening than Monday evening be set for the various class and organization gatherings, so that ample time will be allowed to arrange for them.

5. That we extend to the people of Clearfield our appreciation for their hospitality, to the Clearfield Board of Education for the use of their splendid auditorium, to Supt. Zerfoss and Principal Morrison for the courtesies extended to us.

6. That we tender our heartfelt thanks to Miss Bragg, Dr. Puffer, and Dr. Bryan for their most inspiring and helpful instruction, to Prof. Taylor and Mrs. Bay for the helpful musical instruction, and to Prof. Shaw of the Department, for his inspiring talk.

7. That we extend to Superintendent Trostle and his Assistants our sincere thanks for bringing to us in our institute such splendid instructors and for their untiring efforts to raise the standards of the schools of our County.

EAST END BABY CLINIC THURSDAY

One thing after another has transpired this summer to prevent the carrying out of plans made last spring, by which the D. A. R. would cooperate with the Red Cross in holding a Baby Clinic twice a month in the East End Hose House.

But again everything seems favorable and Thursday at 2:30 a committee of women from the D. A. R. will assist the Red Cross nurse and a physician will be in attendance for consultation.

Mothers are urged to bring their children of pre-school age and take advantage of this help in the rearing of children. The Shick Test will also be given on Thursday to children who were inoculated last winter with toxin-anti-toxin. This is necessary if you would be sure that your child is immune from diphtheria. Eighty-three were given the test at Red Cross headquarters last Thursday. As over three hundred were inoculated, many more should be brought in for the test.

Children will be weighed and measured as usual at Red Cross Headquarters, under the supervision of Miss Ross on Thursday, from two to five o'clock.

Miss Kathryn Reid and Earl D. Mahorn motored up from York, Pa., and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Russell the past week.

Miss Janet Gray returned to her home in York after sending eight weeks with her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Russell.

School Pupils Gaily Romp Back To Books Two Thousand Strong

The Clearfield public schools, with the exception of Junior High, which will not be ready for two weeks yet, opened Tuesday morning. A survey of the enrollment in the different schools made by City Supt. Zerfoss last evening showed that 97 per cent of the expected enrollment was present at the opening.

There are 65 teachers engaged in the different schools and the total enrollment, when Junior High opens, will run well over the two thousand mark. Last year's total was 2,095.

The St. Francis parochial schools also opened on Tuesday morning with an enrollment of approximately 300 under the direction of seven teachers.

ONE KILLED, 7 BADLY HURT AT SYKESVILLE RAILWAY CROSSING

Punxsutawney, Pa., Sept. 3 (INS).—Twila Sprague, 7-year-old daughter of Norman Sprague, was killed and five other occupants of the automobile in which she was riding were seriously injured today, when Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh train No. 118 struck the car on a crossing at Sykesville, near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprague, grandparents of the little girl, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sprague, and Arthur Johnston, were the other victims, with the grandparents expected to die.

All of the victims lived at Paradise, Pa., near Reynoldsville. Norman Sprague was believed to have been driving the automobile at the time of the accident. He was waiting on one side of the crossing for a southbound freight train to pass, and started across the track immediately after it had cleared the crossing when the passenger train ploughed through the automobile. The freight train had obscured any view of the crushing passenger train.

ATTEMPT MADE TO HOLD UP "GOLDEN STATE LIMITED"

Meade, Kansas, Sept. 3 (INS).—More than a hundred armed men are scouring Meade county today in search of two holdup men who failed in an attempt to rob the Golden State Limited, crack passenger train of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. Authorities believe however, that the bandits escaped across the Oklahoma State line.

The two deputy sheriffs who were shot during the gun-battle which ensued when the holdup men were surprised shortly after the train had stopped here, are not in a serious condition.

Officials of the railroad and county officers of Meade had been "tipped" off that a holdup would be attempted. The train was carrying nearly a quarter of a million dollars. When the train stopped three men jumped to the ground from between the two front baggage cars and commanded the engine crew to "stick 'em up."

Officers who were in waiting appeared and the gun battle followed.

After they return from their honeymoon they will take up their residence in Irvona.

Mrs. Richard Gilbert and Rev. and Mrs. Hatch and Miss Kratzer entertained the Sunday School class of Wm. Brown at Irvin's Park last Saturday.

INQUEST AT HERRIN MAY BE SIGNAL FOR ANOTHER OUTBREAK

Both Factions Appear at City Hall Today for Inquest; Hard Feeling Shows On the Surface.

SHERIFF SPEAKS

By BENSON PRATT
(I. N. S. Special Correspondent)

Herrin, Ill., Sept. 3.—With only a corporal's guard the from state militia present to keep order, Williamson county "bloody Williamson" trooped into Herrin today to attend the inquests into the deaths of six men, slain Saturday in the latest flareup of the bitter feud, which has made this county a place of terror.

Both factions came in armed, and while awaiting the opening of the inquest, they gathered about the streets in groups, watching, waiting, fearing. It was the first time since Saturday's killings that the leaders of the opposing factions—Sheriff Galligan and his deputies on the one side and alleged leaders of the Ku Klux Klan on the other—had met. And all Herrin and Williamson county was asking as the time for the inquest neared, "What will happen?"

The air is shrouded in a crimson haze of possible bloodshed. "If the day passes quietly, then it is more or less certain that many peaceful days will follow. It will mean that the problems of Williamson county are solved, but rather that the contending factions have temporarily put their weapons in the holster of an armed truce."

This is the way Sheriff Galligan sums up the situation, and it is the generally prevailing belief that what transpires in the Herrin city hall today will determine what the next chapters of Williamson county contain.

And to add to the tenseness of the situation are the plans of the Ku Klux Klan to mass in the robes of their order to pay their respects to members of the Klan who fell Saturday by a monster demonstration at the funeral today of Charles Willard, one of the victims.

At either the inquest or the funeral, those wise in the ways of Herrin say, some little thing may happen—and if it does—

Meantime Sheriff Galligan is going ahead with plans to bring about a congressional investigation of affairs in Williamson county. This is his answer to the Law and Order Enforcement League which yesterday announced its intention of seeking Galligan's removal by Gov. Len Small and in event that failed to ask Congress to investigate conditions.

"I not only welcome such an investigation," Galligan said today, "but I am going to do all in my power to make such an investigation possible. They—these ministers and their hooded following—are determined to run Williamson county and if they can't rule they will ruin. That in a nutshell is the story of the past few years."

Sheriff Galligan said he would first seek to have Governor Small order an impartial investigation in the county and this failing, he would ask Congress to conduct an inquiry into the activities of the Klan and its sympathizers here.

PROMINENT EDUCATOR ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Philadelphia, Sept. 3 (INS).—Prof. A. G. Lorenzo, of St. Joseph's College here is in a critical condition at the University hospital from two bullet wounds in his head inflicted by himself in an attempt at suicide. The Professor shot himself outside Memorial Hall, in Fairmount Park while two guards looked on.

Police found a farewell note in his pocket addressed to his wife in which he said "everyone is bothering me and people are throwing stones at me." It is thought he suffered a mental collapse.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Porter and daughter Meriam, spent Labor Day at "The Evergreen," a Masonic camp near Bellefonte. The party was composed entirely of thirty-third degree Masons.

DARIO RESTA, NOTED AUTO RACER, KILLS HIMSELF IN LONDON

London, Sept. 3 (INS).—Dario Resta, one of the most famous automobile racing drivers in the world was killed in a smash up on the Brooklands track today.

Dario Resta appeared in many of the biggest automobile races in the United States and was recognized as one of the world's greatest drivers because of victories at the Indianapolis speedway, Sheepshead Bay speedway and on other tracks. The war interrupted his visits to this country and he had not been seen here for several years.

Lt. Pearson, Speed King Of The Air, Dashes To Death On Dayton Field

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 3 (INS).—Military and commercial air circles today were speculating on what effect the tragic death of Lieut. Alex Pearson may have upon the international air races the first week in October.

Lieut. Pearson was instantly killed in a crash at Wilbur Wright Field last night during a practice spin in the navy Curtis racer in which he was to go against time in the greatest classic in the history of aviation.

He was picked as the general favorite to win the Pulitzer trophy.

He had been in the air but a quarter of an hour when the right wing of the plane crumpled at less than 300 feet above ground.

Every bone in the pilot's body was broken by the impact of the wreck and the plane was demolished.

Pearson had been at high altitude and zoomed downward, the plane making 265 miles an hour, according to the best estimates obtainable from flying officers who witnessed the tragedy. At less than 300 feet, Pearson chose to ascend again and pulled over his controls. The little plane responded and as it described the half of the arc in making the swing upward, the wing terrific strain occasioned by the air pressure, according to other pilots.

Mrs. Pearson is in a critical condition due to the shock of her husband's death.

Definite arrangements have not been made but Lieut. Pearson will be accorded a full military funeral. Mrs. Pearson is to have the final say regarding the plans but she was in no condition to reach any decision early today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Spencer left for a visit in Pittsburgh and Cleveland after the reunion.

FOOTBALL MAKES ITS BOW

A genuine football atmosphere has enveloped Clearfield. It coincided with the opening of school and the announcement of the first practice session.

Prospects for the season are good, as 11 seasoned veterans are under the wing of Capt. Bob Wilson. Aside from the dozen letter men the entire junior varsity is available and some very good material developed in that squad last season.

Uniforms were issued Monday to all letter men, while those without the mole skins receive theirs today and will report for the first practice session this afternoon. Although this is the first practice called for, many men have been in constant training and this "rain" to go" propensity has been the cause of daily ball handling practice. Most of the letter men have been working this summer and all are very near their fighting weight and are eager to be physically fit when they see "the whites of the enemy's eyes."

Sousa's Great Band To Play Concert Here Friday, October 3rd

Manager Hartman, of the Driggs Theatre makes an announcement tonight that will interest every lover of good music in this vicinity.

Sousa and his Band will appear at the Driggs theatre for a matinee on Friday, October 3rd, playing here in the afternoon and Punxsutawney in the evening.

It is very seldom that Sousa plays in cities as small as Clearfield and it goes without saying that Sousa will get a fine reception upon his appearance here.

PLAYGROUNDS HOLD MANY ENJOYABLE COMMUNITY EVENTS

Among the many events held during the closing week of the Playground season, were three community parties in which hundreds of folks enjoyed evenings of recreation and social times, in fact a number were seen to attend all three of the parties.

At West Side Park, Miss Dorothy Tobb conducted a "Doggie Roast" which was the delight of a happy crowd from "tots" to young people and parents.

The children of Reedsville Playground spent an entire week getting ready for their big event, and community festival, and personal invitations were extended to the homes of the community by the young people going from door to door. The night was an ideal one and attracted over 500 people. The pavilion was tastefully decorated with bunting and colored lights with streamers; the bonfire was in constant use to roast the "frankfurters" and everyone was intent on enjoying the evening. Messrs. John E. Herdman and S. Boyd Smith entertained with a number of musical selections, during which the young folks romped around in the fashion of the square dance. The committee in charge of Playground Director Kathryn Thorn, had a large supply of refreshments on hand. Many donations of home-made cake, candy and money were gratefully received from residents of the community which helped to make the party a success. A large bag of toasted "goulers" donated by Thorn Bros. were especially enjoyed by the boys and girls in a grand peanut scramble, one lively collecting 172 peanuts in his cap.

Triennial Assessment To Begin On Sept. 8th In Clearfield County

The Assessors will start on September 8th to make the triennial assessment for Clearfield county. The valuations fixed for tax purposes at this time will stand for the coming three years and the local Assessors should go over our town and do their work carefully.

The law provides that before making their assessment the Assessors of the different Wards should meet in conference and then go over the town in a body, view the different properties and make a uniform assessment. That is "properties equal in value should be uniformly assessed and if the Assessors decide to assess a $5,000 property at $1500 or $2,000, in one Ward, the similarly valued properties in every other Ward should have the same rating for tax purposes.

This should be done, the law contemplates that it be done and it is up to the Assessors.

Clearfield borough pays much more county tax in proportion to her borough and school tax, than any other district in the county and this should be corrected at this time and the Assessors are the officials who have the power to and whose duty it is to make this needed correction.

WORK PROGRESSES

For the past four or five years, as since the present bunch of Clearfield business men took over the Clearfield Park and joined with the Clearfield County Agricultural Society in having Clearfield county a real agricultural fair, the annual exhibition has been growing by leaps and bounds, each year's effort far out-reaching that of the previous year, until in this short space of years the Clearfield County Fair has grown in size, importance and wealth of exhibits and entertainment until this fair is now second to none in the central and western part of Pennsylvania, attracting greater crowds of pleased patrons each year.

The Clearfield County Fair is a town and a county institution, whose main object is to place Clearfield and Clearfield county products on exhibition under most favorable conditions and thus show to an admiring people what an empire in itself old Clearfield county is. The unselfish efforts of the fair management have already resulted in converting our big park into one of the largest, handsomest and most finely appointed fair grounds to be found anywhere out of doors, its equipment and accommodations being added to annually by the putting back into improvements of every dollar of profit received from each annual exhibition, together with as much more annually as good business methods will allow.

Every year something new both in the matter of accommodations and entertainment is supplied and this year will eclipse all previous efforts as a $75,000 grandstand, the finest of its kind in the land and a real credit to the fair management, when this year's big fair opens on Tuesday, September 23d.

The big new stand is the very last word in grandstand construction. Built of steel and reinforced concrete, it not only is as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar itself, but practically indestructible. Equipped with comfortable chairs to seat 3100 people, and all modern conveniences, the big structure is a thing of beauty and an everlasting monument to the men whose broad-gauge vision made it possible at this time.

Another new and decidedly novel feature about this year's fair will be the introduction for the first time in the history of Pennsylvania county fairs of a complete night program consisting of light harness racing, hipodrome and other track attractions, in fact a complete fair program. This will be made possible by the installation of several huge batteries of flood lights, each light having 8,000 candle power capacity, the whole designed to flood the big park with light and make every inch of the 35 acres included in the grounds as light as day. That this can and will be done was shown by experiments carried on with the installation of the first flood light unit, when, with but two of the big 8,000 candle power lights turned on, it was (Continued On Page Two)

Klan Will Not Parade At Pittsburgh If Not Permitted To Mask

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 3 (INS).—After months of legal battling, Sam D. Rich, King Klesigle and Imperial representative of the Ku Klux Klan in Pennsylvania has announced members will not parade in Pittsburgh unless allowed to wear masks.

The announcement was made following the acceptance of the parade permit by a Klan official. When the request was first made for the parade city officials denied it, but after Klan leaders had threatened to carry the case through state courts, the permit was granted with the proviso that no masks could be worn.

WHY IT WILL PAY YOU TO TRADE IN CLEARFIELD

The prosperity, individually and collectively, of every community is expressed in the cold calculation of dollars and cents that register in the local banking houses.

And so Clearfield Banks are a correct barometer of the financial condition and the prosperity of Clearfield. Dollars drawn from the vaults of our banking institutions, if spent in Clearfield, will find their way right back to where they come from. You've all heard the story of how one lone ten dollar bill put into circulation cancelled several debts and returned to the pocket of the original spender—a man owed his neighbor ten dollars. He paid him. The neighbor owed the Grocer $10 so he took the same money that had been paid him and paid the Grocer. The Grocer likewise cancelled his obligation with the hardware man for ten dollars and the hardware man immediately paid his garage bill of ten dollars and the garage man, who had the first man working for him, paid his salary with the same ten plus other tens, so five accounts had been cancelled totaling $50, and all with one little ten spot. And so it goes with every other dollar that is spent in Clearfield.

Festival was Miss Leonore Heller of Jersey City, N. J. Miss Heller has been visiting Miss Kathryn Thorn after a most successful season in charge of one of the eighteen playgrounds of Jersey City, one of her charges having won first prize in the city contest on spelling. The boys basketball team will have their photo taken Saturday afternoon.

A third and closing, successful community party was held at the East End Playground on Friday evening, another delightful affair. The Italian band again rendered a program of selections that were enjoyed by a large crowd of folks from every section of Clearfield. The affair was under the direction of the Ladies' Committee assisted by Playground Leader, Miss Margaret Jane Overly and a number of busy young people who kept the visitors supplied with a variety of refreshments. A tug-of-war between the single and married men was a feature of the evening, and the youngsters enjoyed the playground equipment and sack races. The lighting system helped greatly in making the grounds attractive.

Although the four community playgrounds are officially closed it has been decided to leave the swings, seesaws, etc., on the grounds for several weeks longer while the warm weather continues and some of the children have not started their school term. Boys and girls wishing to use playground balls, etc., can secure them from the Y. M. C. A. office to use at their playground.

The community tennis courts will be "marked off" and the net in place for the next two months, and the public are urged to make continuous use of them; players are expected to furnish their own racquets and tennis balls. Volley ball for men and the Horse shoe leagues will continue during September.

YOUNG SON OF MR. AND MRS. A. B. CURTIS DIES

Following an illness covering a period of three weeks—despite all that medical skill, careful nursing and kindly ministrations could do to stay the ravages of disease—Charles Chamberlain Curtis, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Curtis, of Phillipsburg, passed away from complications at the family home at 10:30 o'clock on Monday night, September 1, 1924. He took ill at the Rotary picnic at Lakeside Park, and his condition at once assumed a critical aspect. Deceased was born in Phillipsburg on November 21st, 1913, making his age 10 years, 9 months and 11 days. He was an exceptionally interesting and lovable lad, and a favorite among his playmates. He was one of a large class of boys and girls taken no membership in the Trinity Methodist church on Sunday, May 4th, 1924. It was always his pride to be at his place at the earliest possible moment in the Sabbath school, and esteemed it a delight to accompany his parents to the preaching services. Had he lived he would have entered the sixth grade with the opening of the present term of school. There is deep and wide spread sorrow throughout the community over the death of this precious boy, loved so much and the more by those who knew him best. Besides his grief-stricken parents, he is survived by three brothers, Othello, Owen and Melvin. The funeral in charge of Rev. Dr. R. S. Oyler, will take place from the family home on Thursday afternoon at 2:30, with interment in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

CHURCH EVENTS

Bible School was a very interesting session, with many strangers and visitors in attendance. This came to 378 with offering of $23.67. Ord Norris and Mrs. William Gilliland were appointed delegates to the Sunday School convention in which the pastor desired Trinity to be represented by 100 per cent of enrollment of teachers. Next Sunday is the Missionary program and offering, with the first Fall Rally.

In the morning the services were enjoyable. All the music by a large chorus was finely rendered. The exposition of John 3:2 and Cor. 2:2 presented "The Preaching for These Times." Conditions of living, industry and home are changing thoroughly. Seeking of pleasure, resort to luxury in an excessive degree, which spells a waste, must be countered by a Christian passion for service. And the test of life must be loyalty to Christ. The challenge to men for survival by faith that carries the entire man into a complete commitment, must be stressed. We need to be saved as much by His life as by Christ's grace.

In the evening the last union service was held, in which the Rev. Messrs. R. A. Hatch, W. L. Cruthers, E. C. Reeve, and E. Roy Hauser, who was in charge, each participated. By lot it fell to the pastor of Trinity Church to preach the sermon, which was an exposition of Romans 10:10—"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." The male chorus sang two selections, and by the choir two special selections were given; also, a dismissal-recessional.

This week's events, Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock, the semicentennial convention of the County Sunday School association will open its two-day session. Wednesday, 8:40 p. m. official board.

FIREMEN 'HOUSE' NEW TRUCK

Chester Hill House Company on Saturday night housed a brand new auto combination chemical and hose truck. One year ago interested and progressive citizens determined to organize a local fire company, and look after the fire-risk in their rapidly growing town. Harry Hughes, a large property holder, was an active leader in the proposition. The truck was bought and delivered. Last week and the Fire Company, put on a bazaar which attracted large crowds for three nights, culminating in the housing ceremony, Saturday night, when Jno. M. Bain, of Clearfield, delivered the address using as his theme the thought of "Service" and especially volunteer service such as rendered by Volunteer Firemen. The Morrisdale band rendered a program of delightful concert music and the ceremonies were followed by an old fashioned square dance.

Fire Chief Frank Kephart and his assistant chief, James Hawkin, of the Phillipsburg Department had charge of the affair and were present with the Fire Laddies of their city in uniform and with their equipment to welcome their new neighbor into the ranks.

CAUGHT CORN STEALER

Steward Bowman, at the County Home, caught an East End man and his son coming out of one of the corn fields on the Home farm Monday and an examination of the boy disclosed that he had no less than fifteen ears of under ripe corn hid away in his blouse. The corn was confiscated and the man was made to pay $1.00 for the damage done, as a warning to others that trespassing and stealing at the County Home farm must stop.

Combine the Chrysler Six new spring suspension with the special flexy high speed balloon tires, standard on all models, and you have an unequalled degree of comfort in riding. Other features that help set the Chrysler Six apart are the utter lack of a vibration period at any speed, the ability of the motor, although only 3-inch bore by 4 1/4-inch stroke to deliver 68 horsepower, a speed capacity better than 70 miles an hour, gasoline economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon and an alertness that enables you to shoot from 5 miles an hour to 50 in less than 19 seconds.

The Touring, $1395 The Phaeton, $1495
The Roadster, 1625 The Sedan, 1725
The Brougham, 1895 The Imperial, 1995
All prices f. o. b. Detroit, tax extra.

Results never before known, which you can count on the Chrysler Six delivering, bear upon every phase of performance. None of these surprising accomplishments is more remarkable, or more acceptable, than the elimination of side-sway.

This is due to the adoption of an entirely new practice in spring suspension. In the Chrysler Six the rear springs are mounted at right angles to the axle, close to and parallel to the rear wheels—instead of at an angle to conform to the taper of the frame.

As soon as you can, take a ride in the Chrysler Six. Try it out on a turn and note how securely it takes it, without the slightest suggestion of disagreeable or alarming side-sway. And while you are in the car, try it out also on a cobbled street or rutted road. You'll find you can ride in comfort at 60 miles an hour.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan.

LIGHTER BREAKFASTS

The good old institution of ham and eggs for breakfast is disappearing, says a Chicago hotel steward. Likewise the allied bacon and eggs and sausages and stacks of buckwheat cakes.

"Fruits and cereals are rapidly becoming the main dishes of the business man's breakfast," he says.

A heavy breakfast is still the rule on the farm and in the woods, with much justification. It takes considerable fuel to keep a hard-working outdoor man going through a long morning. But even there common sense is coming into play, and meals, in size and quality, are being adjusted more scientifically to the needs of the human engine.

As for the business or professional man and woman, it is simply a case of making less work for the stomach in order to let the brain do more work. This applies to lunch as well as breakfast.

SHORTER BALLOTS

"There is no reason in the world," remarks a prominent newspaper, "for electing a coroner or a county surveyor or a state treasurer or secretary of state. The people seldom know the candidates and are not in position to choose between them. Men of better ability could generally be had if these officers were appointed."

This is true of many other offices, too—state, county and municipal. It is desirable to get as many names as possible off the regular election ballots, in order to give the voter a chance to concentrate more intelligently on those that are left. It is especially desirable to lessen the number of names on primary ballots, under the system of nomination now prevalent almost everywhere, because they confuse the voter and make wise choice difficult.

Multiplying opportunities to run for office is evidence of democratic freedom, but there is danger of too much democracy along this line. The short ballot generally results in more intelligent voting, more interest in elections and better government. It lets the citizens vote only for a few important officers, who appoint the rest. Thus authority is concentrated and responsibility is fixed.

This is the way of good private business, and it is being recognized more clearly, year by year, as good likewise for public business.

MAN AGAINST HORSE

Another indignity was heaped upon the horse the other day. And it happened in London, where that noble beast is still highly honored. A man beat a horse in a six-day race. Each of the contestants trotted for 10 hours a day. On the last day the horse was taken out, exhausted, before the time was up, while the man was still jogging along steadily. The crowning humiliation was that the man was nearly 60 years old.

This is by no means the first instance of the kind. It has been proved many a time that although the horse has the advantage for short distances, a good human runner can beat him in a long race. Either the man's build enables him to function more efficiently, when allowed to set his own pace, or else his intelligence and will give him an advantage over brutes even in physical contest.

Both are put to shame, however, by the tireless gas engine, which can cover far more ground in one day than man and horse did in a week, and keep on doing it day after day. Which means that mechanically, man and all the other animals are far from perfect. They lack locomotive efficiency because they can only progress by a series of awkward up and down movements, instead of the smooth turning of wheels and shafts.

Birds and fishes are better suited to easy locomotion, and man wisely imitates both in the airplane.

Curwensville's Own Column

The game of base ball at the Park on Labor Day between Glen Richey and Grampian was a contest worth watching. It was hard to determine until the game was almost finished which side was going to be the winner. At the close however Glen Richey proved to be the victors, winning out in an error of the first baseman on the Grampian side, he letting a ball pass through which brought in the winning tallies. The score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Richeys.

IT'S A FULL MEAL

That's a remark one lady used when she had been asked to come here for lunch the other day. "Why I'd call that a full meal for anyone and yet you call it a lunch," she said and she meant it, too.

We hear this remark frequently after folks have come here to lunch the first time.

THE SNYDER REUNION

The Snyder Reunion was held last Saturday, Aug. 30, on the well known Paul Mays farm, near Olanita, Pa.

The day was a great success and shall never be forgotten by the friends and relatives who came from far and near to spend the day together at that beautiful spot in the woods.

The morning was taken up mostly in talking to those whom they had not seen for a year, and many who had not met for years talked together of old memories of the past. Next came dinner, and the tables were laid with everything one could wish for and everyone had all they could eat.

The program for the afternoon was handled very nicely by Mr. Col Snyder, president of the association. The program consisted of some fine music by an orchestra, recitations by the old and young, an address by Rev. Parker Large, and an address by the president of the association. The program ended by singing "America," and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Every one enjoyed the day and went to their several homes carrying a smile with them.

Jack's Prayer.
Little Jack had been so naughty that mother had to give him a spanking, and all that afternoon a desire for revenge rankled in his breast. At length bedtime came and kneeling down he said his evening prayer, asking a blessing upon all the members of the family individually—except one.

Then, rising, he turned to his mother, with a triumphant look, saying as he climbed into bed, "I s'pose you noticed you wasn't in it."

"The White Rose"

Joseph Beaugrande is the only son of a family rich in worldly goods, of high social circumstances and prestige, and boasting of unassailable position in the oldest social ranks of the old South. He is preparing for the ministry, thus fulfilling a dying wish of his mother, whose death came when he was just a youth. Born into aristocracy, raised and influenced after his mother's death by an aunt of puritanical mind, he has set for himself the highest of ideals. Eric has given to him a handsome face, and a genius for influencing others.

When the story opens Joseph is in his last year at the theological seminary. He has had a "puppy-love" affair with Marie Carrington, slender brunette, patrician of patricians, the richest and most beautiful heiress in all the South. It has been practically accepted by all Joseph's friends that he will marry a girl of equal family rank; and understood by the Beaugrande and Carrington families that Joseph and Marie will wed.

Leaving school he plans, after a brief visit at home, to go on a long walking trip in which he shall stop at many cities. This he feels he needs in order that he may learn of the worldly work and generally broaden his necessarily limited outlook on life.

On the day of his return from the seminary Marie Carrington gives a great masked ball. Joseph is present, as also is John White, a grocer's clerk who has become infatuated with the dazzling Marie and who takes advantage of the masked ball to be near and look upon the girl he loves, and who has carelessly planned his clumsy attempt at kidnapping his daughter.

At the same time near New Orleans, a long distance from the home of the hero, a fifth of aphan girl obtains a position at a hotel Joseph Beaugrande, setting out into the world to study humanity, "seize the day" and "take his work" in the ministry, makes his way to this inn where many a prisoner is to be found, and there meets the orphan girl, Bessie Williams, otherwise known as "Teazie." The girl, Bessie Williams, the acute flapper stage, having accepted to the full the advice of other girls that she must make herself attractive to get on in the world, and having out-distanced her advisers.

The embryonic minister meets "Teazie" and immediately becomes infatuated. He has been warned against the girl, but feels himself drawn by a passion not to be denied, despite his struggle against his own heart. Their friendship ripens, the young, student weakens, then realizes, and then flees, his chaperon's presence.

The world moves on its cycle of weep; the grocer's clerk, rebuffed again and again by the patrician girl who has won his heart, goes into the world to make good that he may win; the youthful student is ordained into the ministry and soon ranks high as of exceptional powers; to the little orphan girl who blossomed into the flapper "Teazie" comes a tiny babe, and like a blossom she fades, is cast about hither and thither, shunned and neglected because of her violation of that terrible single code of morals which has held so long.

Despite his surroundings, his success in the pulpit, the brilliance of his future, the young minister cannot forget the girl he met and knew so briefly. Pressed by circumstances he is soon to wed Marie Carrington. Then one day there wanders into his parish "Teazie" with her infant in her arms, homeless, forlorn.

Then comes the choice—the girl of his own rank and social circle; the honors and glories of the pulpit to gain which he must forever yield his love, the only love of his life. Which shall he choose?

Why It Will Pay You To Trade In Clearfield

Clearfield is Your city. And you can take away from its success, thereby reducing your own prosperity, or you can aid materially your city and yourself if you will always spend your dollars in Clearfield. Every dollar you spend either helps to make or mar the business success of Clearfield. It either adds or subtracts from the financial strength of our banks as well as of our business firms. And when you take away from the prosperity of a community you take away from your own prosperity or chance of more prosperity at the same time. So you see this matter of buying in Clearfield all revolves right back to self interest.

Next week we are going to tell you something about your neighbors—it's not scandal—neither is it gossip, but after you read it we want you to gossip to your neighbor about it. The title of this next article is "They". Watch for it on this page of next week's Progress.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

A memorial to John Brown, the famed abolitionist, of pre-Civil War days, whose body is buried at North Elm, N. Y., will be erected in Crawford county at the place of the Pomona race and other interested persons. Brown once conducted a military school at a meeting in the old foundation of the tannery and constructing thereon a reproduction of the building, the structure to be used as a museum. Seven hundred dollars have already been contributed toward the project and the site of the tannery, which once was a station on the famous underground railway of the day, has been offered free. Ten thousand dollars will be the goal sought by the memorial association.

More than one billion tons of soft coal, of which approximately 62,000,000 tons were unavoidably lost, have been lost in mining in Pennsylvania in the last twenty years. Amos D. Lister, assistant state geologist, declared in a bulletin entitled "Bituminous Coal Losses and Mining Methods in Pennsylvania," issued for distribution by the Geological Survey. It was pointed out that Pennsylvania has the second highest coal recovery in the United States with West Virginia.

The bulletin traces the history of mining developments in Pennsylvania from the Civil War time and is the only one of its kind made of the State's coal fields. It describes in detail the mining methods employed in each of the fields and is a co-operative work between the Pennsylvania Survey and the United States Coal Commission.

Pennsylvanians have been loyal to their native sons in the matter of losing governors as only three in a last 124 years were born outside the State. Of these Gov. Pinchot is one, Simsbury, Conn., being the place of his birth. The others were John K. Tener, born in County Tyrone, Ireland and Robert E. Patton, who was born in Quantico, Maryland.

We men are more or less disposed to cackle or swear at the female of the species for getting her hair bobbed because it is fashionable just now, and so like a woman. On Monday when the Prince of Wales sauntered into Belmont Park where the international horse was being held, "Halbert" Howard was wearing a Panama hat with its brim turned down all the way round. With ten minutes of the arrival of the Prince every Panama hat and soft hat in the crowd had its brim turned down all the way round. Thus did American royalty ape the British Knight. The women have nothing on us men, by heck!

An artificial kidney, invented by Dr. John J. Abel of Hopkins Medical school in Baltimore, will soon be tried out experimentally in Berlin. Its purpose is to relieve the kidneys during dangerous moments, such as when poisons like mercury compounds are in the blood. The imitation kidney, made of glass, is tapped into veins and arteries to filter the blood.

Seems a wild suggestion now, but will scientists finally perfect artificial hearts, stomachs and the like? The body, after all, is just a delicate machine. If man can put a new engine in a fitter, why not in a person?

"That distance lends enchantment to the view," has long been advanced as a wise crack by wise crakers. It rings true even now in the firm belief of a local young lady. Some few months ago this young lady got into correspondence with a gentleman named Benjamin Trude, who lived out in Oklahoma. "As the correspondence persisted both sides alleged to feel the spark of love begin to kindle in their hearts. It must have been indigestion however, because when the Oklahoma man arrived in Clearfield last week and sought out the object of his long-distance courtship, one look at him cured the young lady, and she politely but firmly told the western stranger there was nothing doing in the marriage line. Trude remained several days and attempted to press his suit in person, but the fickle fair one said "nothing doing." I can pick up a whole lot of better looking fellows than you right here in Clearfield." Giving up the fruitless quest at the end of a week Trude started Saturday last on the long trip back to Oklahoma single-handed and alone.

Fair Grounds Will Be Illuminated At Night

possible for a man at the extreme edge of the Park to read the typewritten address on an envelope at 9:30 p. m.

These lights will be so placed that the track will be made light as day and night patrons of the fair will thus be privileged to enjoy the same measure of entertainment as is furnished during the daylight hours.

This is a decided innovation at county fairs and should prove both desirable and highly attractive.

The exhibits of farm products, live stock, fancy poultry, etc., will be away ahead of last year, Manager Callahan's bookings already show.

Another feature out of the ordinary at this fair will be the wild animal exhibit under the direction of the State Game Commission. This exhibit will be in charge of Chief Trapper C. E. Logue, who, with his assistants, will give daily lessons or instructions in trapping for furs.

The program for the fair follows, and includes a racing program which provides $4,000 in purses, with 75 horses entered.

Free attractions: King Bros. presenting Kentucky thoroughbred racing hippodrome, with the following acts—Roman standing race, half-mile dash; racing ostriches, half-mile dash;

racings elk, half-mile dash; flat race, half-mile dash; high jumping horses; menage horses; riding ostriches; cowboy monkey drill; relay race, mile and a half; Roman chariot races, half-mile dash. The above acts will be staged both day and night with 16 good fast horses and 12 riders.

Midway amusements: Merry-go-round, ferris wheel, airplane swings, merry mix up, caterpillar, minstrel show, athletic show, Indian show, circus side show, water show, one ring circus and platform show.

Have You a Bad Back?

Then the Advice of This Clearfield Resident Will Interest You.

Does your back ache night and day? Hinder work; destroy your rest? Are you tortured with stabbing pains? When you stoop, lift or bend? Then likely your kidneys are weak. More troubles may soon appear. Headaches, dizziness, nervousness; Or uric acid and its ills. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic.

Use Doan's Pills.

Read this Clearfield testimony: Geo. J. Kragle, painter, 306 E. Locust St., says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and backache gave me little rest. The most troublesome times were when I stood in one position too long or if I stooped. The sharp kink took me in the small of my back and it was hard to straighten. Sometimes, a lame, sore back bothered me mornings. My kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills from Aughenbaugh's Drug Store drove away the backache and regulated my kidneys."

ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL CROMAR FLOORED HOME

A newly constructed home on W. 10th St. in Clearfield, Pa., showing the beauty of Cromar flooring throughout. Builder and owner, Henry E. Betts.

CROMAR Flooring and good furniture harmonize—they are both finished at the factory

Nothing more strongly emphasizes good taste than the harmony of floors with furniture and furnishings. The beauty of one enhances that of the other.

That is one of the charms of CROMAR Oak Flooring. Its beauty is not in itself alone, marked as that is. It has the quality of brightening up the whole house, as no other single improvement can.

With attractiveness, CROMAR brings many conveniences. It can be laid a room a day—and used that day—because all filling and varnishing is completed at the factory. It is thoroughly seasoned and sealed on all sides against moisture to prevent warping. It costs no more—usually less—than you pay for oak floors bought and laid the usual way.

There are lumber dealers in your town who sell CROMAR. Any good carpenter can lay it. Write for booklets, sample and names of dealers.
